Dear Brother Chalk,

We appreciate so much the interest you have shown in us before and since we moved to Knoxville. Your letters have certainly been an encouragement to us, and we are so grateful that you took time from your busy schedule to write them.

Yes, it was a great thrill for me to have a part in leading my neighbors to Christ. I am so thankful that I was given the opportunity to tell them about Christ's Church and the plan of salvation. I don't know if Carrie told you or not, but they had never heard of the Church of Christ.

We are very happy here at Arlington. Everyone has been so nice to us, we feel as though we have always been a part of the congregation.

We are getting ready for our meeting which begins Sunday with Brother C. E. McLaughly. We are having Cottage prayer meetings every night until the meeting starts.

I haven't received a bulletin from Broad Street since we moved. I would love to get the bulletin if you can mail them out of town.

Sincerely yours,
Rosalene Davis
